The Love Doctor is

Not that I am the Dr. of Love or anything like that... For me the theme of this year 2020 is LOVE in my personal life and in my business. I am talking LOVE because February is the Love month, rightly celebrated with Valentine's Day.

I feel very blessed to be in this stage of life, and to recognize that Love is the most powerful force. Of course unconditional love for our kids and family is what gives us the energy to get up each and every day and do all the super hero tasks to take care of our family!

When we also find love in what we do in our work, it doesn't feel like work, and we are even more motivated and driven to go the extra mile, and to help others and make an impact!

I'm extremely fortunate to have discovered my passion in serving others and impacting lives - this is what propels me in my profession as realtor and team leader. With our team, we thrive on helping families move by selling their home or buying their new home; we are driven each day by serving each other on the team, and serving our clients. There's so much Love on our team, and each member has so much Love to give one another and to each client we serve. When we touch our clients' life, we truly want to help them reach their goals and resolve their problems.

Please know that my team and I are eager to help anyone you know wanting to make a move so much so that we are willing to make an offer that they will LOVE.

Why I Support Plan International Canada:

While I grew up right here in Brampton/Mississauga, I was born in Vietnam. I have been a Plan Canada Sponsor for several years. My sponsor children live in rural northern Vietnam, the country where I was born and forced to flee after the war. It really touched my heart and changed the way I see my life with my son; supporting in a way that can impact the lives of a family living in my home country halfway around the world. It has become my heart's desire to go and visit Le and Luc in North Vietnam, with my son Justin. My life is no longer just about myself and my son, it's much bigger and so much more, to be able to contribute even in small ways to the world that we live in. I'm proud to support Plan Canada with the goal of raising money and donating a portion of our income from home sales to help their quest to promote child rights and lift millions of children out of poverty. My team and I are committed to providing outstanding results for buyers and sellers referred to us by our clients. There's an incredible and amazing outcome of our hard work, and we're happy to contribute and give back to our communities.
